Unless otherwise provided by law, or unless no change is required, you will receive notice of changes within thirty days of the effective date of the change. If you have elected to receive notices and disclosures electronically and to the extent permitted by law, we will supply you with such notices via email or alert you to the availability of such notices on our website.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT. You agree that by using the Services, or allowing another to access your account(s) via the Services, that you have received a copy of, and agree to be bound by, the most recent Agreements and Disclosures of Sun East, including Sun East Federal Credit Union Depository Agreement and Disclosure, Schedule of Fees and Charges, the Rate Schedule, the Account Schedule, the Privacy Notice, the Electronic Banking Services Agreement Account and Disclosure, and these Online Banking Agreements and Disclosures. These Agreements and Disclosures constitute the agreement between you and us related to the Services and supplement any other agreement or disclosure related to any of your accounts. In the event of a conflict between these Agreements and Disclosures and any other agreement or disclosure related to any of your Accounts, any statement by our employees or agents, or any representation or statement relating to the Services, these Agreements and Disclosures shall control. You may not assign these Agreements and Disclosures, or any of your rights or responsibilities under these Agreements and Disclosures, to any other party. We may assign these Agreements and Disclosures, and any or all of our rights and/or responsibilities under these Agreements and Disclosures, or delegate any or all of such rights and responsibilities, to any third party or parties.

YOUR RESPONSIBILITY FOR COMPLYING WITH THIS AGREEMENT. Each owner of an account for which the Service is established is responsible, jointly and individually, to meet the terms of this Agreement. These obligations continue until you notify us to terminate the Service or we cancel your Service for a reason permitted by law or this Agreement. Each owner is responsible for all obligations incurred as a result of authorized use of the Service until you or we terminate the Service(s). Termination of the Service will not relieve you of obligations incurred prior to termination. This obligation to the Credit Union will continue even if an owner is later relieved of the obligation by an agreement or court order to which we are not a party, such as a divorce decree. We are not subject to any agreement or court order to which we are not a party.

No release from the obligations under this Agreement will be valid unless (a) in writing and signed by an authorized Credit Union employee or (b) pursuant to a court order in an action to which the Credit Union is a party.

CONSENT TO ELECTRONIC DELIVERY. You specifically agree to receive and/or obtain any and all Sun East Online Banking related Electronic Communications via Online Banking, Mobile Banking, SunPay and/or email. The term Electronic Communications includes, but is not limited to, any and all current and future notices and disclosures that we provide to you electronically, as well as documents, statements, data, records and all other communications regarding your relationship with Sun East. You acknowledge that Sun East reserves the right to restrict or terminate your access to Online Banking if you withdraw your consent to receive Electronic Communications. You may withdraw your consent by:

ELECTRONIC SIGNATURE. You consent and agree that your use of a key pad, mouse or other device to select an item, button, icon or similar act/action while using any electronic service we offer; or in accessing or making any transactions regarding any agreement, acknowledgment, consent, terms, disclosures or conditions constitutes your signature, acceptance and agreement as if actually signed by you in writing.

COMPUTER REQUIREMENTS. The Service requires you to have certain computer capabilities, which we may change from time to time without prior notice to you. Refer to docs.suneast.org/disclosures for our current computer requirements.

You are solely responsible for obtaining, installing, maintaining and operating your computer and your internet access. We will not be responsible for errors, deletions, failures, or damages of any kind that occur because of malfunctions of your computer, software or internet service. We will not be responsible for any virus that affects your computer or software while using our Service.

EMAIL ADDRESS. A current, valid email address is critical to our successful delivery of the Service to you. You agree to maintain an active email account at all times. You further agree not to hold the Credit Union liable for sending these disclosures and/or communications to such address. Any fees assessed by your mobile phone carrier are your sole responsibility.

If for any reason the email address you provide us changes or becomes inoperable for more than a short period of time, you agree to contact us immediately so that we can arrange to provide you with Electronic Communications through other means. Your email address can be updated in Online Banking by clicking on the “My Settings” link and then the “Update email options” link, by calling the Credit Union, or visiting a branch near you.

Unencrypted email is not secure. You should not rely on email if you need to communicate with us immediately; for example if you need to stop payment on a check, to report a lost or stolen card, or an unauthorized transaction. You should not use email, or reply to any email, to send us your personal or any confidential information. We will not take action based on your email request until we actually receive your message and have a reasonable opportunity to act.

Through the website we may, at our option, send one or more email alerts on transactions or other activities pertaining to your Accounts visible through the Service. In addition, upon signing on to the application, you may select to receive specific email alerts for specific accounts for delivery to your email address on record with us. Both Credit Union-initiated Alerts and Member-Initiated Alerts are emails covered by this Section. This email alert service shall not modify any right or obligation that you or we may have under applicable law or any agreement with the Credit Union. By using the Service and selecting specific email alerts, you acknowledge and agree we shall have no liability if any other person accesses, views, uses or discloses your email notification content as all emails are sent via unencrypted means through an unsecured Internet. You understand and agree that delivery of email notification is not guaranteed and may be subject to delay or non-receipt due to reasons that are not under the Credit Union's control. You also agree that we are not responsible for any action not taken by you due to an alert or transaction triggering an alert. Any fees associated to receipt of these alert notifications that are applied by your Internet service provider are your sole responsibility. Alert notifications will never include full account information, User IDs, or passwords. Some information regarding balances and transactions may be included. You hereby consent to Credit Union's delivery of those alerts to the email address on its records, and you acknowledge that anyone with access to your personal email account may be able to access this information. This means that a person who is able to access your email will be able to see information relating to your bank account contained in this alert. This service is provided for informational use only and should not replace your normal banking habits or processes. Credit Union may stop the alert notifications at any time, or may begin to charge a fee as determined.

USER RESPONSIBILITY FOR ONLINE SECURITY. To sign on to the Service, you are required to input your Username/Member Number and PIN. After initial online setup, you will be required to select your own Username and Password. To help safeguard your security, you should change your password frequently. Your password can be changed within the Service. Do not write your password anywhere or store it on your computer. If you forget your password, use the "I can't access my account" process in the Service or call us at 877-5-SUNEAST • 877-578-6327 to regain access. Notification of unauthorized use must be provided via telephone at 877-5-SUNEAST • 877-578-6327. You should never include your password in any verbal, written, faxed, or email communication with us or anyone. No Sun East employee will ever ask you for your password or PIN.

You acknowledge that maintaining confidentiality of your account(s) is your responsibility. You agree to maintain your account information and online Username and Password in strict confidence in order to prevent unauthorized access to your account(s) and the Service. You further agree to immediately notify us of any unauthorized use, or potential unauthorized use, of the Service or account(s), or of any suspicious or unexplained activity in your account(s). You acknowledge that anyone with whom you share or who otherwise uses your Username and Password will have access to your account(s) for all purposes, including making withdrawals, regardless of ownership of such accounts. You further acknowledge that you will be responsible for any access to and from your account for any purpose.

ONLINE USER AUTHENTICATION AND SECURITY PROCEDURES. We reserve the right to deny access to the Service or reject a transaction on your account(s) without notice to you if we believe that there is risk of unauthorized, illegal, or fraudulent activity. You agree that we may, in our sole discretion, require verification of user identity, in a manner satisfactory to us, at any time before allowing access or login to the Service or before authorizing an online transaction from an account. Such verification may be in any form we determine appropriate and may include, without limitation: 1) verification of Username/Member Number, PIN or password; 2) verification of personal information contained in Credit Union records; 3) correct response to previously submitted personal questions, sometimes referred to as "security" or "challenge" questions; 4) correct response to questions devised from public records and consumer reporting agencies on subjects only the user likely would have personal knowledge, sometimes called "out of wallet" or "knowledge based authentication" questions; 5) verification of online activity by simultaneous contact through a non-online channel, sometimes called “verify by phone” or “out of band” authentication; or 6) any verification procedure that we may determine appropriate.

In the event you do not successfully provide the information requested, we may, at our sole discretion: 1) refuse a transaction; 2) require you to contact us by phone or in person at a branch for further validation of identity; 3) cancel the Service; and/or 4) take any security precautions we deem appropriate to prevent unauthorized use of the Service or the account(s).

LOG-ON SECURITY: Your session will be automatically logged off if you have reached your current timeout period without activity. This is to reduce the risk of unauthorized use if you inadvertently leave your computer unattended with the Service open. When you return to your computer, you will be prompted to re-enter your Username and Password, and your session will continue.

SECURITY TECHNOLOGY: Online Banking uses Secure Socket Layer (SSL) encryption. The system will typically warn you if your Internet Browser does not have sufficient capacity to support our encryption system. If SSL is securing your communications with us, the appearance of a small padlock icon near the URL should change to indicate this fact. The servers hosting the Service have been certified by “Certificate Authority” to assure you that you are actually talking to Service instead of someone pretending to be the Service. Depending on the age of your browser, you may see that “Certificate Authorities” have expired. If this happens, you must update it on your browser. The Service will pass an encrypted cookie to your computer during your Online Banking sessions. These cookies do not collect any personal information about you. The cookies allow you to process several transactions without re-entering your Security Code for each transaction. The cookie is destroyed when you log off of Online Banking, close your browser, or turn off your computer.

SECURITY NOTICES: In addition to the security features described above, there may be other security-related notices posted on our web site or within the Service from time to time. You are responsible for reading all security notices.

NO SECURITY WARRANTY: Notwithstanding our efforts to ensure that the Service is secure, we cannot and do not warrant that either the Service or data transmitted using the system will be free from monitoring or access by others.

SERVICE AVAILABILITY. If you enroll in the Service, you may start using the Service immediately. The Service is generally available 24 hours-a-day, 7 days-a-week. The system may be temporarily unavailable from time to time for maintenance, due to high Internet traffic volume, or for other reasons beyond our control. If this happens, please try your transaction again later. We are not responsible for any delays you have in accessing or using the Service.

LIMITATIONS

Transaction Limits

We may impose fees, limit the dollar amount, or the number or transfers or withdrawals from each of your Savings accounts, Club accounts, Premier Money Market and Performance Money Market Accounts using our online banking or Sun East Bill Pay. See the Sun East Account Schedule for information about limits on such transfers and fees.

Account Balance Information. Balances displayed on Online Banking and Mobile Banking may include deposits that we have not yet verified and therefore are not actually available for withdrawal. Online Banking and Mobile Banking balances may also differ from your records due to deposits in progress, checks outstanding, or other circumstances. When a transaction is presented to us via Online Banking or Mobile Banking, we will use the available balance in your account to determine whether to authorize the transaction. Our completion of a transaction does not necessarily mean that there are sufficient funds to pay all items that have not cleared your account.

Definitions

"Biller" refers to any payee that provides you with bills, statements or invoices through the Service.

"Business Day" shall mean every Monday through Friday, excluding Bank holidays.

"Cut-Off Time" shall mean the time of day that Payments to be processed that day must be received by Credit Union, and after which time the earliest possible Payment Date or Withdraw On Date and Due Date or Deliver By Date shall be calculated from the next Business Day.

"Due Date" or "Deliver By Date" or "Delivery Date" shall mean the Business Day on which you schedule the Payment to be delivered to your Payee, unless this date falls on a non-Business Day in which case it shall be the immediately preceding or following Business Day as indicated in the Scheduled Payment instructions. In any case, it is the date you determine to be most appropriate to deliver payment to your Payee considering such factors as the Payee-specified date payment due, grace period, late payment policy or late fee, and/or your knowledge of actual time required for the Payee to receive and process the payment and to credit your account with the Payee, and/or the urgency/criticality of payment delivery, as the case may be.

"Fee Account" shall mean the checking or similar account for which you are an authorized signer, and from which the Credit Union may automatically debit or otherwise collect all Service fees.

"Funding Account" shall mean the checking or similar account for which you are an authorized signer, and from which the Credit Union may debit or otherwise collect the funds necessary to remit the Scheduled Payment to the corresponding Payee, per your instructions.

"Merchant" shall mean any business Payee you establish within the Service for whom the Service Provider has established a business relationship expressly for the purpose of remitting Payments from the Service.

"One-Time Payment" shall mean a Scheduled Payment that results in a single payment delivered to the Payee per your instructions.

"Payee" shall mean the individual, business or other entity to which you intend to send a payment through the Service and for which you accurately provide and maintain the appropriate or required information such as name, bill remittance/payment delivery address, phone number, account number and account holder name; and to whom you authorize the Credit Union to remit payments on your behalf through the Service.

In any case, it is the date on which sufficient available funds must exist in the Funding Account.

"Recurring Payment" shall mean a Scheduled Payment that results in a series of payments delivered to the Payee at regular intervals per your instructions, and shall continue to do so until you cancel it or until the maximum number of payments and/or final payment date that you specified is reached.

"Scheduled Payment" shall mean the payment instructions you establish within the Service in order to properly direct funds from the Funding Account you designate to the Payee you designate.

“Service Provider” refers to any third party vendor used by Sun East to provide services to the member.

Service Guarantee. The Service provider will bear responsibility for any late payment related charges up to Fifty Dollars ($50.00) should a Payment post after the Scheduled Payment Due Date or Deliver By Date, provided that the Payment was scheduled and the Payee information was maintained in accordance with the guidelines described within this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Service provider shall not be responsible for any such charges if the Service provider does not have responsibility or liability for a Payment transaction, late payments or late payment related charges under the other provisions of this Agreement, including, without limitation, those payments described under the Exception Payments section below.

Responsibility. The Service provider shall use commercially reasonable efforts to process the Scheduled Payments per your instructions. Neither the Service provider nor the Credit Union shall be liable for any Payment transaction if:

- You do not have enough money in your Funding Account to complete the transaction;
- A legal order prohibits withdrawals from your account;
- Your Funding Account is closed or has been frozen, or is otherwise not authorized to debit the corresponding Payment Amount;
- The transaction would cause your balance to go over the credit limit for any credit arrangement set up to cover overdrafts;
- You, or anyone you allow, commits fraud or violates any law or regulation in connection with the Services;
- Any electronic terminal, telecommunication device or part of the electronic fund transfer system is not working properly;
- You did not provide complete and correct Funding Account, Payment or Payee information;
- You did not properly follow the instructions or terms and conditions for use of the Service;
- You knew and/or had been advised that Service was not operating properly at the time you scheduled the Payment;
- There is a postal delay; or
- Circumstances beyond the Service provider’s control (such as fire, flood or improper transmission or handling by a third party) that prevent, hinder or delay the transaction.

With the exception of the foregoing, if the Service incorrectly debits your Funding Account and/or directs funds from your Funding Account to a Payee inconsistent with the instructions you specified in the Scheduled Payment, the Service shall, upon detecting the error or receiving notice from you, be responsible for returning the improperly transferred funds to your Funding Account and/or redirecting funds to the proper Payee and/or contacting the Payee to request appropriate adjustments on your account with the Payee except as otherwise provided under the Authorization section below.

Liability. You will be responsible for any Payment request you make that contains an error or is a duplicate of another Payment. The Credit Union and/or Service provider is not responsible for a Payment that is not made if you did not properly follow the instructions for making a Payment. The Credit Union and/or Service provider is not liable for any failure to make a Payment if you fail to promptly notify the Credit Union after you learn that you have not received credit from a Payee for a Payment. The Credit Union and/or Service provider is not responsible for your acts or omissions or those of any other person, including, without limitation, any Payee or transmission or communications facility, and no such party shall be deemed to be the Credit Union's and/or Service provider's agent. In any event, the Credit Union and/or Service provider will not be liable for any special, consequential, incidental, or punitive losses, damages, or expenses in connection with this Agreement or the Service, even if the Credit Union and/or Service provider has knowledge of the possibility of them. The Credit Union and/or Service provider is not liable for any act, failure to act or delay in acting if it is caused, in whole or in part, by any cause beyond the Credit Union's and/or Service provider's reasonable control. Refer also to the terms provided in the Electronic Banking Services Account Agreement and Disclosures.

Setting Up and Maintaining Payees. To begin using the Service you will first need to establish at least one Payee in your Payee List. You may add, modify or delete Payees as necessary. It is your responsibility to manage your Payee List and maintain accurate Payee information, such as but not limited to the address to which the Payee specifies Payments are to be delivered, your account number with the Payee, the name on your account with the Payee, etc., except where the Service expressly indicates that it shall manage such Payee information, such as a Merchant's remittance address. Payees must reside or exist within the United States of America or its territories or commonwealths. The Service provider and/or the Credit Union reserve the right to refuse or remove a Payee for any reason.

Setting Up Payments. To schedule Payments you must choose a Payee from your Payee List. You may schedule One-Time Payments and Recurring Payments to any of your Payees. It is your responsibility to cancel, skip, reschedule or revise a Scheduled Payment in accordance with the Payee's instructions to you, or as needed to ensure sufficient available funds in the corresponding Funding Account, or under circumstances where the Payee may return the Payment to the Service provider due to any reason outside the Service provider's or the Credit Union's control. The Service provider and/or the Credit Union reserve the right to refuse or cancel a Payment for any reason.

The earliest possible Deliver By Date for each Payee will be determined and presented by the Service when you schedule a Payment. The Service will not permit a Deliver By Date earlier than the earliest possible dates presented. The Service determines this earliest possible Deliver By Date based on the number of Business Days required to deliver a Payment to the Payee, which is primarily affected by whether or not the Payee has agreed to accept remittance of Payments electronically (typically one or two [1 or 2] Business Days) or requires Payments be delivered by check (typically four or five [4 or 5] Business Days). A Payee's location or policies for posting and crediting payments may require additional Business Days. Payments scheduled after the Service's Cut-Off Time shall be processed no earlier than the following Business Day. Currently, the Cut-Off Time is 3:00 p.m. Central Standard Time, but the Service provider and/or the Credit Union may change the Cut-Off Time without prior notice.

You should carefully consider factors such as the Payee's date payment due, grace period, whether the Payee's date payment due falls on a non-Business Day, etc., when scheduling a Payment to avoid late payments and late fees. You must allow the necessary number of Business Days prior to the Payee's date payment due for each Payment, including each Payment of a Recurring Payment series. Some businesses take longer to post payments than others. You should consider allowing additional time for the initial Payment to a Payee through the Service in order to gauge the appropriate Deliver By Date in each case, and determine whether to allow an additional one (1) or two (2) business days to avoid incurring any late fee charged by the Merchant. It is your responsibility to schedule Payments appropriately and in accordance with the Payee's requirements. Neither the Service provider nor the Credit Union shall be responsible for late payments, nor reimburse you for late fees, for any Payment delivered in accordance with your instructions, or as a result of a Payee's payment processing policies, or any other circumstance outside the Service provider's control.

Payments to Payees, businesses or individuals, outside the United States of America or its territories or commonwealths, are prohibited.

Editing or Canceling Payments. Any Payment can be modified or canceled, provided you access the Service prior to the Cut-Off Time on the Business Day Payment is going to be processed. Once a Payment is in-process as indicated by the Service, no changes may be made. You may contact Sun East by phone to request a stop payment; however, a stop payment option may not always be available.

Stop Payment. You may request to stop payment after a payment has been processed by contacting Sun East. The Service's ability to successfully stop payment depends on how the funds were remitted to the Payee and the elapsed time since the Payment was processed. The Service provider and the Credit Union will make commercially reasonable efforts to stop payment per your request, but shall have no liability if unsuccessful. You may be charged a stop payment fee for each request. (See Schedule of Fees and Charges) Stop payments must be completed in conjunction with the terms identified in the Electronic Banking Services Account Agreement and Disclosures and Depository Agreement and Disclosures.

Exception Payments. Tax payments and court ordered payments may be scheduled through the Service; however such payments are discouraged and must be scheduled at your own risk. In no event shall the Credit Union or Service provider be liable for any claims or damages resulting from you scheduling these types of payments. The Service provider shall have no obligation to research or resolve any claim resulting from any such payment. All research and resolution for any misapplied, mis-posted or misdirected payments will be your sole responsibility.

Bill Payment Process. The Service will process Payments in accordance with the Payment instructions you provide. The Service will not process Payments on weekends or federal holidays. The Service will debit your Funding Account or issue a draft against your Funding Account, and deliver those funds to the designated Payee on your behalf such that the funds arrive as close to the scheduled Deliver By Date as is reasonably practicable.

Numerous business and technical requirements determine if a Payee can accept Payments electronically, but in all cases Payments can be remitted by check. The Service provider shall have sole discretion to determine the appropriate remittance method. In order to process Payments efficiently and effectively, or otherwise comply with Merchants' remittance requirements, the Service reserves the right to change or update Payee data, or alter the method of Payment remittance. Neither the Service provider nor the Credit Union shall be responsible for late payments, nor reimburse you for late fees, due to: a) U.S. postal delivery issues; b) electronic remittance network issues; c) your Payee's payment processing procedures; d) instances where the financial risk associated with the Payment requires check remittance instead of electronic remittance or additional Business Days to ensure sufficient funds in the Funding Account are available; or d) other circumstances beyond its control.

Authorization. When you schedule a Payment, you expressly authorize the Service provider and/or the Credit Union to withdraw from your Funding Account the Payment Amount and to remit those funds to the designated Payee on your behalf, and additionally to debit your Funding Account for any applicable Service related fees. You further authorize the Credit Union to credit your Funding Account for any payment returned from or undeliverable to the Payee. In addition, you certify that the Funding Account is an account from which you are authorized to make payments and incur debits.

You agree to have available and collected funds on deposit in the designated Funding Account in amounts sufficient to process each Payment as requested by you, as well as any other payment obligations you have to the Credit Union. The Credit Union reserves the right, without liability, to reject or reverse a Payment if you fail to comply with this requirement or any other terms of this Agreement. If you do not have sufficient funds in the Funding Account and the Credit Union has not exercised its right to reverse or reject a Payment, you agree to pay for such Payment obligations on demand. You further agree the Credit Union, at its option, may charge any of your accounts at the Credit Union to cover such Payment obligations.

You authorize the Service provider and the Credit Union to contact your Payees to request appropriate adjustments consistent with your Payment instructions and/or as pertaining to the Service Guarantee and Responsibility, and/or to stop payment on any draft issued against your Funding Account in connection with the Service in the unlikely event that the Service remits funds incorrectly to any of your Payees, and/or to withdraw funds from your Funding Account in the event you otherwise receive the benefit of the amount of such incorrectly remitted funds.

Returned Payments. In using the Service, you understand that Payments may be returned by or to the Service provider for various reasons including but not limited to: the account or account number at the Payee is not valid, the Payee address is not valid, the Payee returns or rejects the remittance item, the account at the Payee has been paid in full or has been turned over to another company or individual. The Service shall use commercially reasonable efforts to research and correct the returned payment, or void the payment and credit your Payment Account. You may receive notification from the Service.

Fees. For a list of fees, please refer to the Schedule of Fees and Charges.

Some Bill payments are processed by Electronic Fund Transfers (EFT). Please see the Electronic Banking Services Agreement and Disclosures located in the Disclosures section under Additional Services or, received when you opened your account, which discloses important information concerning your rights and obligations.

Account Security. You are responsible for all Payment transactions authorized by you or by anyone to whom you provide access to your Bill Pay account. You are liable for all Payment transactions you make or that you authorize another person to make even if that person exceeds his or her authority.

Links to Other Sites. Information that the Service provider or the Credit Union publishes on the World Wide Web may contain links to other sites and third parties may establish links to Service's site. Neither the Service provider nor the Credit Union makes any representations or warranties about any other web site that you may access to, from or through the Service's site. Unless expressly stated in writing, neither the Service provider nor the Credit Union endorse the products or services offered by any company or person linked to this site nor is the Service provider or the Credit Union responsible for any software or the content of any information published on the site of any third party. Any use of hyperlinks from this site to sites not controlled by us is done at your own risk. Any links purporting to link this site are likewise done at your own risk. You should take precautions when downloading files from sites to protect your computer software and data from viruses and other destructive programs.

Virus Protection. Neither the Service provider nor the Credit Union is responsible for any electronic virus that you may encounter using the Service. You are encouraged to routinely scan your computer and files using reliable virus protection products to detect and remove viruses. If undetected and unrepaired, a virus can corrupt and destroy your programs, files and hardware.

Damages and Warranties.
